

Nexia SAB&T strive to uplift and empower previously disadvantaged individuals in various different ways. Nexia SAB&T utilises various platforms to ensure that our community and educational driven initiatives have far reaching effects in the communities in which we operate, these include: providing scholarships for previously disadvantaged learners and a bursary programme that supports full time students at various tertiary institutions.

The partners and directors of Nexia SAB&T also actively participate in development organisations in the profession, such as the Advancement of Black Accountants of Southern Africa (ABASA), Black Chartered Accountants Practitioners (BCAP) and South African Institute of Chartered Accountants (SAICA) particularly insofar as where the development of black accountants is concerned.

Over the years, Nexia SAB&T has embarked on a number of initiatives that benefitted historically disadvantaged communities.

Details of these initiatives are set out below:

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Department of Basic Education

In August 2014 Nexia SAB&T donated 52 computers to the Department of Basic Education.

Harold Cressy High School

Harold Cressy High School is a secondary school in District Six of Cape Town in South Africa. It was founded in January 1951 as the Cape Town Secondary School. The school has played a substantial role in South African history during the apartheid period and the building is identified as an important landmark.

Nexia SAB&T perform audit work for the Harold Cressy High School Alumni on a pro bono basis.

Literacy for Life – 'Adopt a school' project

Literacy for Life is a Non-profit organisation. They assist cash strapped schools around the country by providing them with stationery, art materials and WriteRight educational products.

The "Adopt a school project" is a programme where companies can adopt a school and ensure that the children in the "Foundation Phase" of these schools, enjoy the opportunity of being able to use additional tools that can help them learn to read and write, as well as express themselves through drawing or painting. Nexia SAB&T supports this initiative on an annual basis..

Offering interest free loans to our staff to further their studies

The annual cost to Nexia SAB&T of the interest lost due to the extended periods allowed for the repayment of loans amounts to some R300 000 per annum. In addition, where students proved themselves, and as a further incentive repayment of the loans are waived for students excelling in their chosen fields of study.

Thuthuka Bursary Fund

Nexia SAB&T is an active contributor to the Thuthuka Bursary Fund and we presently fund, on an annual basis, a minimum of four full time students studying toward becoming Chartered Accountants at various tertiary institutions.

Over and above a financial commitment, our firm further provides opportunities for these learners to fulfil their practical training requirements with the firm.

University of Western Cape

Nexia SAB&T Director, Hassen Kajie serves on the Advisory Committee of the Department of Accounting at the University of the Western Cape. The Committee meets 4 times a year and discusses, amongst other matters, ways of improving the pass rate of Accounting students at the University, especially the Honours students to enable them to write the FQE exam.

Mr Kajie also serves on the Subvention Committee of the department. The Subvention Committee deals with the allowances paid to Chartered Accountants who lecture at universities. The university receives an annual allowance from SAICA which is derived from the traineeship levies of the firms trainee accountants. This annual amount is shared between the lecturers and professors in the department and the committee meets once a year to consider the amounts recommended by the Head of the Department.

SPORT

The Wolverhampton FC,

A football club located in Chukker Road, Wetton, is on the Cape Flats and in most instances, the kids wanting to play football come from poor homes in the surrounding areas. They often do not have the season subscription fees which they are required to pay before they can play for the club. These kids are passionate though and have the drive to do well. There are currently 15 children that form part of the new U13 team that started at the Wolves FC in 2011.

Nexia SAB&T sponsored the Wolverhampton Football Club with playing kits as well as providing financial assistance.

Lions Club – Kirstenbosch

Laudium Youth Congress

Heavens Nest

With over 46,000 clubs and more than 1.4 million members, Lions Clubs International is one of the largest service organisations in the world. Every day, Lions men and women from all over the globe continue to make a positive impact in the lives of those who need help most - from children who need spectacles to read, to seniors who don't have enough food to eat. Nexia SAB&T supports this organisation as we believe in the saying, 'a problem shared is a problem halved.'

The 26th June 2016 marked the 61st Anniversary of the Freedom Charter. A group of youth met and decided to re-establish the Laudium Youth Congress (LAYCO). LAYCO was a congress aligned organisation affiliated to the UDF and led the youth of the community in the struggle to win our freedom, they are now known as Laudium Youth Congress. These days, the organisation has different struggles to confront in creating a better life for all. Nexia SAB&T has supported the formation of the newly established movement and will continue to assist where the lives of the community can be positively impacted.

Located in Cape Town, South Africa, Heaven's Nest is a project of the Church of St Francis of Assisi in Strandfontein and the Fikelela Aids Project. They care for up to 14 children between the ages of six months and eight years at a time, offering them a secure, loving home until they can be re-united with their families, fostered or adopted. Many of the children have experienced neglect and abuse which have left deep scars. So, as well as providing love, good food, basic education and health care, they also provide counselling and play therapy to all our children. Nexia SAB&T believes in investing in the future leaders of tomorrow and Heavens Nest continues to receive our support.

Hendrik Monyeki

Hendrik Monyeki is a young up and coming local Jazz musician who caught the attention of one of our directors when he was on a live radio interview on 702, during the John Robbie show. Hendriks plea was that he needed assistance through sponsorship in order to travel overseas to realise his dream of learning and performing in Sweden, Germany and various other countries in Europe. As an individual who comes from a historically disadvantaged background Nexia SAB&T took it upon ourselves to sponsor the young artist the full amount that he required in order to fund his trip. Hendrik has since trained with some of the top European music producers, performed in front of thousands of adoring fans and continues to vigorously refine and perfect his craft.
