1. DEFINITIONS

PAIA means the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000.

POPIA means the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013.

Information Regulator means the Regulator as established in terms of Section 39 of POPIA.

Person means a natural person or a juristic person.

Private body means:

- a natural person who carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession, but only in such capacity;
- a partnership which carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession; or
- any former or existing juristic person, but excludes a public body.

Public body means:

- any department of state or administration in the national or provincial sphere of government or any municipality in the local sphere of government; or
- any other functionary or institution when:
 - exercising a power or performing a duty in terms of the Constitution or a provincial constitution; or
 - exercising a public power or performing a public function in terms of any legislation.

Head, in relation to the firm means the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or equivalent officer of the juristic person or any person duly authorised by that officer.

Information Officer means the responsible person for ensuring the firm's compliance with POPIA. The Information Officer must be registered with the South African Information Regulator established under POPIA prior to performing his duties.

Requester in relation to the firm means any person, including, but not limited to a public body or an official thereof, making a request for access to a record of the firm or a person acting on behalf of such a person.

Personal Requester means a requester seeking access to a record containing Personal Information about the requester.

Personal Information is any information that can be used to reveal a person's identity. Personal Information relates to an identifiable, living, natural person, and where applicable, an identifiable, existing juristic person (such as a company), including, but not limited to information concerning:

- race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national or ethnic origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental health, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth of a person;
- information relating to the education or the medical, financial, criminal or employment history of the person;
- any identifying number, symbol, email address, physical address, telephone number, location information, online identifier or other particular assignment to the person;
- the biometric information of the person;
- the personal opinions, views or preferences of the person;
- correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence;
- the views or opinions of another individual about the person;
- the name of the person if it appears with other personal information relating to the person or if the disclosure of the name itself would reveal information about the person.

Request for access means a request for access to a record of the firm in terms of section 50 of PAIA.

Record means any recorded information regardless of the form or medium, in the possession or under the control of the firm irrespective of whether or not it was created by the firm.

Data Subject means the person to whom personal information relates.

Third Party in relation to a request for access to a record held by the firm, means any person other than the requester.

Processing means any activity or any set of operations, whether or not by automatic means, concerning personal information, including

- the collection, receipt, recording, firm, collation, storage, updating or modification, retrieval, alteration, consultation or use;
- dissemination by means of transmission, distribution or making available in any other form; or
- merging, linking, as well as restriction, degradation, erasure or destruction of information.

2. PURPOSE OF A PAIA MANUAL

On 9 March 2001, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 became operative, giving effect to the section 32(2) Constitutional right of access to information.

One of the main requirements specified in PAIA is the compilation of an information manual that provides information on both types and categories of records held by a private body, such as Nexia SAB&T.

This document serves as the Nexia SAB&T information manual and provides reference to the records held by the firm and the process to request access to such records.

The purpose of PAIA is to:

- foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public and private bodies by giving effect to the right of access to information; and to
- actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect all of their Constitutional rights.

The firm recognises everyone's right to access to information and is committed to provide access to the firm's records where the proper procedural requirements as set out by PAIA and POPIA have been met.

The firm's PAIA manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of the Act and contains the following Annexures:

Annexure A : Contact Details

This Annexure provides the firm's postal and street address, phone and fax number and, if available, the e-mail address of the CEO and Information Officer of the firm.

Annexure B : Section 10 PAIA Guide

This Annexure provides a description of the guide referred to in Section 10 of PAIA and how you may obtain access to it.

Annexure C : Statutory Records

This Annexure provides a description of the various laws of South Africa in terms of which the firm is required to maintain records.

Annexure D : Availability of Records

This Annexure provides a list of records held by the firm.

Annexure E : Request Procedure

This Annexure sets out the procedure required to obtain access to a record.

Annexure F : Prescribed Fees

This Annexure sets out the fees that are payable to the firm prior to processing a request to obtain access to a record held by the firm.

3. DUTIES OF THE INFORMATION OFFICER

The Information Officer of the firm is responsible for:

- Publishing and proper communication of the manual i.e. creating policy awareness;
- The facilitation of any request for access to information;
- Providing adequate notice and feedback to the requester of the information;
- Determining whether to grant a request for access to a complete/full record or only part of a record;
- Ensuring that access to a record, where so granted, is provided timeously and in the correct format; and
- Reviewing the policy for accuracy and communicating any amendments.

Right of Access

The Information Officer may only provide access to any record held by the firm to a requester if:

- The record is required for the exercise or protection of any right; and
- The requester complies with the procedural requirements relating to a request for access to that record; and
- Access to that record is not refused in terms of any of the grounds for refusal listed below.

Grounds for Refusal

The Information Officer must assess whether there are any grounds for refusing a request for access. Where any grounds for refusal are found, a request for access will not be granted.

However, despite finding any grounds for refusal, access to the record(s) will be provided where:

- the disclosure of the record would reveal evidence of a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with any legislation; or
- the disclosure of the record would reveal imminent and serious public or environmental risk, and
- the public interest in disclosing record, will clearly outweigh the harm contemplated in the provision in question.

Where there are no grounds for refusal, request for access will be granted.

If a request for access is made with regards to a record containing information that would justify a ground for refusal, every part of the record which does not contain and can reasonably be severed from any part that contains, any such information must, despite any other provision of PAIA, also be disclosed to a requester.

The grounds for refusal are set out below:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a Third Party who is a natural/juristic person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural/juristic person.
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
 - Trade secrets of that party;
 - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that party;
 - Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Nexia SAB&T if the disclosure could put that third party to a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records which could be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- The commercial activities of Nexia SAB&T which may include:
 - Trade secrets of the firm;
 - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the firm.

Notification

Nexia SAB&T will within 30 days of receipt of the request decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect. The 30 day period within which the firm has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days, if the request is for a large volume of information, or the request requires a search for the information held at another office of Nexia SAB&T and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. Nexia SAB&T will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

ANNEXURE E: REQUEST PROCEDURE

In order for Nexia SAB&T to facilitate the Requester's access to a Record the Requester needs to complete the prescribed request for access to Record form (PAIA Regulation 7) [Form 02] available on the Firm's and/or the information Regulator's website and submit same to the appointed information Officer for consideration. Please take note of the following:

- Form 02 must be completed in full.
- Proof of identity is required to authenticate the identity of the requester. Therefore, in addition to Form 02, requestors will be required to supply a copy of their identification document.
- If the request is made on behalf of another person, the requestor must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request.
- Should there be insufficient space on the prescribed form, additional information may be provided on a folio, attached to the prescribed access form. The attached folio must however be referred to in the prescribed access form.

The Information Officer will notify the requester that a request for access has been received and that the prescribed fee (if any) is payable prior to processing the request. Personal requesters will not be charged a request fee.

Once the request has been processed, the Information Officer will inform you of the outcome of your request and any additional fees that may fall due. Payment details can be obtained from the Information Officer indicated in Annexure "A" above. Proof of payment must be supplied. The request fee must be paid prior to access being given to the requested record. If the request for access is successful, an access fee may be required for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the record(s) and will be calculated based on the Prescribed Fee. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer will repay the deposit to the requester. A deposit (being not more than one third the request fee) shall be requested and payable by the requester in the event that the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the record(s) requires more hours than prescribed for the purpose of the search or preparation of a record.

Please be advised that PAIA provides a number of grounds on which a request for access to information must be refused. These grounds mainly comprise instances where:

- the privacy and interests of other individuals are protected;
- where such records are already otherwise publicly available;
- instances where public interest are not served;
- the mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party; and
- the mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party.

ANNEXURE F: PRESCRIBED FEES

The following applies to requests (other than personal requests):

- A requester is required to pay a preliminary request fee before a request will be processed.
- If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (six), an additional deposit shall be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request was granted).
- A requestor may lodge an application to a relevant court for waiver of the payment of the required fee and/or deposit.
- Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid.
- The fee structure is also available on the South African Human Rights Commission's website at www.sahrc.org.za

ACCESS FEES:

The applicable fees (excluding VAT) which will be payable are:
